5.1. Receive information from Historian Adeyinka Maddy regarding ideas on creating a Youth Commission timeline.

Historian Adeyinka Maddy proposed a possible timeline to the commission. The timeline was presented on a Prezi presentation and outlined what it could look like. The first page had an option to choose an event. When he clicked on an event, it takes you to another slide with more information about what happened at the event and the purpose of it. It also had spaces outlined for pictures to go in. Commissioner Mosby said she would like to see a testimony of someone who attended the event or ran the event and their opinion on it. Another commissioner brought up the idea of having a (line) timeline that would include the time we spent on each event. The commission and commission advisor discussed having the designated Historian to be in charge of updating the commission's timeline after each event.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

5.2. Receive updated information from the Youth Commission Newsletter subcommittee and discuss action.

The newsletter Committee gave us and update on their plan for a four page newsletter that would come out monthly. The commission would like to move forward with featuring a commissioner of the month. Selena motioned for Mide to be the first commissioner of the month and prayer seconded it. It passed with nine votes and one absent. The committee would like the first page to be a cover page with a logo decorated with the theme of that month. The commission also discussed not only featuring a commissioner each month but also featuring someone who is not on the commission whether it is a council member or a youth in our community doing something great.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

5.3. Follow up on youth involvement ideas presented by Commissioner Noyogiere.

Commissioner Noyogiere informed the commission that the event is no longer going to be held in person but instead as a drive by. They no longer need our help but if they hold this event again they would definitely like to ask the commission to help out again.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

5.4. Receive information from the Youth Commission giveaway subcommittee and discuss action.

The giveaway committee talked to the commission and discussed what patterns and styles of shirts and sweatshirts they would like. The commission all agreed that we would like tie dye hoodies and plain white crewnecks. We also want plain colored and tie dye shirts. The Commission advisor asked us what we would like our budget to be so she can contact different printers to find what will work best. The commission decided the budget for the giveaways should range from 2,000 to 3,000 dollars.

PUBLIC COMMENT None.

5.5. Receive information from the Youth Commission Food Drive subcommittee and discuss action.

The food drive committee gave their update from what they discussed at their subcommittee meeting. We plan on having the event on December 4th from 4 to 7. The commission would like to hold the event in the parking-lot of District 56 or the Aquatic Center. Addie also said he would like to have the role of photographer at the event. The commission wants to move forward with having two commissioners at each station. We will comply with social distancing and masks. The subcommittee would really like the commissioners to all dress up that day. If the sweatshirts arrive in time all commissioners plan to wear them.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

5.6. Discuss any additional project ideas for the upcoming year.

Commissioner Noyogiere strongly felt that we should continue with the idea of webinars. The commission created a subcommittee for it which includes Prayer, Selena, and Mide.

5.7. Youth Commission Ordinance Review Subcommittee update.

The Ordinance review subcommittee gave the commissions an update on the changes they plan to make to the ordinance. They informed us that 2 tardies would equal an absence. To qualify for a tardy a commissioner would have to be 15 minutes late or more. Once one commissioner has a total of two absences they will be removed from the commission.
