5. REGULAR AGENDA ACTION ITEMS

5.1. Receive information from the City's Strategic Planning & Innovation Team regarding Smart City plans and provide feedback.

Moved ahead of 4.1; Christopher Jordan presents of the Smart City Plan. The Commission discussed with him how we connect and innovate and what is important to look at. We will have follow up on the item in the fall.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

5.2. Receive recommendations from the subcommittee review team and approve winners of the Youth Commission scholarship program.

Commissioner Victoria Martinez explained the process of the subcommittee's selection of the applicants. There were 75 applications received over the five categories. Advisor Carrie Monti spoke to the total number of applicants per category, and those that were disqualified (duplicate applications in same category). Advisor Monti shared the award winners with all youth commissions are the same time. Winners will be announced during the Youth Commission's presentation at the City Council Meeting on May 12th. All those who submitted will be notified they were not selected.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

5.3. Finalize Council presentation scheduled for May 12, 2021.

The Youth Commission reviewed the content of slides completed. Commissioner Victoria Martinez noted that expanding on the ordinance slide in the presentation and the new lens and “operating on reflection” has changed how the Commission has changed over the year. Victoria will be presenting this piece in the presentation.

5.4. Receive final information from the Youth Commission giveaway subcommittee.

Commissioner Kassi Parsons listed a number of items to be given away. Advisor Carrie Monti noted the list needs to be finalized and emailed to her.

PUBLIC COMMENT None

6. GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE UPDATES/ANNOUNCEMENTS

Advisors Carrie Monti and Tiffany Agrusa congratulated the Youth Commission on a great year despite all the challenges being virtual and wished the seniors well!

7. ADJOURNMENT

The May 11, 2021 Youth Commission Meeting was adjourned at 7:27 p.m. by Chair Mide Agbe-Davies.
