6. REGULAR AGENDA ACTION ITEMS:

6. Review the PowerPoint presentation for the City Council meeting scheduled for January 10, 2024.

Advisor Omotesho reviewed expectations for the City Council meeting, including the arrival time. Each commissioner chose a slide to present. Additional notes were made to ease the presentation.

PUBLIC COMMENT: None

6.2 Review information from the Path to Positivity subcommittee and discuss action.

Aeyla Buño reported that she has reached out to NHS at Franklin High School. Kassi reported that Roman Musso will attend and speak at the event. He will also be advertising the event on Instagram. Advisor Omotesho is awaiting a response from the EGUSD office about a district counselor attending the event. Advisor Omotesho informed that the recruiting unit of the Police Department requested to participate in the event. The Commission voted to invite them to the City

Leadership-Youth Forum event instead. Ohm Shah motioned this, and Pratham Rangwala seconded the motion. It passed with a 9/0/1 vote.

PUBLIC COMMENT: None

6.3 Review information from the City-Youth Forum subcommittee and discuss action.

The event was discussed. The subcommittee provided event details, and Advisor Omotesho confirmed that three city leaders would participate. This will allow more time for the youth to ask questions.

PUBLIC COMMENT: None

6.4 Review information from the Family Fun Day subcommittee and discuss action.

All arrangements are progressing well. SMUD's official response is still pending, but they have mentioned incorporating scientific games.

PUBLIC COMMENT: None

6.5 Review information from the Heritage Event and Food Drive subcommittee and discuss action.

The subcommittee reported that this event is planned for the first or second Thursday in May, and they are already reaching out to dance groups at different schools.

PUBLIC COMMENT: None

7. GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE UPDATES/ANNOUNCEMENTS:

During the meeting, Advisor Omotesho suggested that commissioners publicize and encourage more sign-ups for the upcoming "Path to Positivity" event. She also informed us that the February meeting will be held in the District 56 conference room. Furthermore, there was a discussion about scheduling a special meeting in March due to the expected low attendance during Spring Break.

8. ADJOURNMENT:

The January 09, 2023, Youth Commission Meeting was adjourned at 6:35 p.m.
